

CALL for Proposals

CALL Conference 2023: May 24-26, 2023
Hosted by Humber College, North Campus (Bi-modal conference)

Communications, ESOL/Language, and General Education faculty are invited to submit proposals for presentations, workshops, or facilitated discussions under the following theme:

Back to Our Future: Rethinking College-Level Education in the “New Normal”

How can we reconcile our instructional practices of the past with the educational landscape we find ourselves in today? How can we use this new knowledge to shape an effective future of teaching and learning for ourselves and for our students?

Any theme-related topics are welcome. Here are some ideas; many intersect:

Well-being: Health & safety	Instructional modalities: Onsite, online, hybrid, hyflex	Curriculum, pedagogy, assessment: Critical texts, talks, tasks
Equity, diversity, inclusion	(Re)-engagement	Fundamental skills and practices Alternatives to traditional approaches
Resiliency	Presence, flipped learning	Critical thinking, collaboration
Belonging	Revival of paper, pen, etc.	Agency, autonomy, advocacy
Accessibility	Critical digital pedagogy	(Mis/dis) information literacy, management
Sustainability	Addressing learning barriers	Artificial Intelligence and education
Community	Workload & learner inequities	Transferability, authenticity, UDL

Proposal Requirements:

- Presentation title
- Presentation overview: 150-250 words
- Brief bio of the presenter(s)
- Preferred format: Presentation, workshop, or facilitated discussion
- Preferred session length: 30, 60, or 90 minutes
- AV or other requirements

*The conference will be offered in multiple modalities, with events taking place on-site at Humber College, North Campus, and streamed online. Presenters are encouraged to deliver sessions on-site, but please indicate in your proposal if you need to present virtually.

Submit proposals to info@callontario.org by Friday January 27th, 2023.

Keep an eye on www.callontario.org for more information about the 2023 conference as it becomes available, including updates about the conference program, keynote speakers, and registration instructions.